JOIN THE CANADIAN VINTAGE RADIO SOCIETY

The Canadian Vintage Radio Society (formerly the Alberta Vintage Radio Society) is a registered non profit organization dedicated to the preservation, restoration and enjoyment of antique radios and related items. Run solely by volunteers, the C.V.R.S. is committed to providing regular antique radio Restoration Work Shops & Swap Meets. As a means of exchanging information, the exclusive publication "Radio Waves" is published bimonthly. In it are articles on Restoration & Repair, Radio History, Classified Ads and much more. General meetings are held at the Provincial Archives (Alberta Provincial Museum) at least four times a year. Besides dealing with society business; presentations and guest speakers are common attractions. Funding is provided by yearly membership fees, donations and fund raising activities. As a long term objective the C.V.R.S. hopes to establish a Vintage Radio Museum in Canada.
